

HW: Source List and Journal Check

For this assignment, I would like for you to upload a scan of your journal for the writing assignment. Remember that this is a journal where you're writing down the activities that you're doing as we progress through the long form writing process. For this first check, I'm assuming that you won't have a lot at this point.

Secondly, I would like for you to provide a list of the sources you will be using for the long form writing project. You can use the citation format of your choice for this assignment, but for each citation, include a note about how you checked your sources.

Due: Upload both to Canvas by April 9th.

Reading Homework for next Tuesday:

(a) Ch 8, "Large Language Models" text.

(b) Short blog post from Roger Ebert.

Readback due 9AM on Tuesday.
