Figure 5. Employment sector, American participants. Of the 82 American citizens, seventy-three percent were in academia, 13% with the Federal government, 2% in the non-profit sector and 1% each with state governments and the commercial sector. Seven percent were unemployed.